FINANCIAL CONSIDERATION*

*Note: this is not a financial assessment. It is intended to generate awareness and a conversation around the cost of pet ownership.

The financial expense of owning a cat is worth careful consideration. The annual cost (including food, supplies, vet care) ranges from $1,200 to $2,500 (CAD).** Approximately $575/year is for food alone (approximately $47/month). Cost can be much greater if medical need(s) arise. Inflation also plays a role.

**Cost statistics estimated based on reports from Calgary Humane Society and Statista.com (2022 ownership costs).

- 1) Are you able to undertake this expense?  Yes  No

TRAINING & BEHAVIOUR

1) Some cats will require training. Please tell us about your experience with cats:

My experience with cats is that...	Agree	Disagree	Uncertain
I am a first time cat owner	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
I have cat-sat before	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
I need a cat that is already trained	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
I have trained cats before	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
I have lots of experience and could handle a difficult cat	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

2) What training methods best represent your approach or plan? (check all that apply)

- Positive reinforcement     
  Balanced approach     
  Relationship-based training
 Clicker training     
  Aversive tactics (i.e. spraying with water)
 Unsure. I need more information about these methods before I can answer.

3) What problems are you willing to work on? (check all that apply)

If you do not select a problem, it means you are unwilling to work on that issue.

- Separation anxiety     
  Excitability     
  Scratching furniture     
  Finicky eating habits
 Aggression     
  Play aggression     
  Fearfulness     
  Vocalization
 Reaction to strangers     
  Urinating outside litter box     
  Defecating outside litter box
 I am not willing to work on any problems.

4) Under what circumstances would you give up (return, surrender, rehome) your cat?

- Not enough time     
  Moving/change in living situation     
  Too costly
 Behaviour problem     
  Medical reasons of pet     
  Aggression
 New pet in the home     
  New baby/family member
 None. I am willing to work on all issues that arise. I do not intend to give up my cat.

If you check any items above, please elaborate on each item you checked:

5) If you are unable to care for your cat due to circumstances outside your control (i.e. change in household structure, medical limitations, unexpected financials, lifestyle change, etc.) do you have a plan for your animal to be safe and cared for?     Yes     No

Please elaborate:

OBLIGATIONS & LEGALITIES

1) Rescue animals will experience an adjustment period which can last from 3 weeks to 3 months or longer. During this transitional settling-in period, your new pet may display new behaviours, prior behaviours may temporarily escalate, or they may shut down until they feel safe. What steps do you plan to take to ease this decompression and adjustment period, and to work through possible challenges that may arise?

3) Have you ever been convicted of neglect or cruelty to animals?  Yes  No

4) I understand that it is my responsibility to see and meet the cat for myself before agreeing to adoption. The adoption of a lifelong animal friend should not be impulsive, but rather a carefully thought out decision, which will ensure a loving, lasting relationship.
